The first song I ever heard by them (several years after its release) was their cover of Sonny Curtis's hit, "I Fought the Law, and the Law Won." Despite being a fairly law-abiding guy, I can relate to being on the losing side of a battle ... I Fought the Church, and the Church Won - Called to Communion - In the Lord. Here is the directory by which gladness is preserved from levity. We are not to be glad in sin, or to find comfort in corn, and wine, and oil, but in our God is to be the garden of our soul's delight. That there is a God and such a God, and that He is ours, ours for ever, our Father and our reconciled Lord, is matter enough for a never ending psalm of rapturous joy.
